BVLGARI HOTEL LONDON TO TAKE PART IN 2019 LONDON DESIGN FESTIVAL

LONDON, AUGUST 2019 - Bvlgari Hotel London has announced that they will be taking part in this year's London Design Festival with a unique collaboration with Fish Design by Gaetano Pesce produced by Corsi Design.

Taking place from 14-22 September, London Design Festival celebrates London as the design capital of the world with a series of events and installations across the city.

Over nine days, Bvlgari Hotel London will be showcasing an exclusive selection of colourful vases handcrafted from resin as part of London Design Festival. Visitors to the hotel will also be able to enjoy colourful pastries inspired by the Fish Design display.

After pioneering the use of resin to create design products, Italian designer Gaetano Pesce met Andrea Corsi of Corsi Design in 2003 and shared his unique formula. This partnership later became Fish Design and the pair continue to use truly unique techniques and materials for their creations.

Both Italian-born, the duo specialises in handcrafted Italian design - reflective of Bvlgari's brand ethos - and for Fish Design, the resin of each vase has been sculpted and moulded to create a series of colourful and truly individual pieces.
